Church premises

We have all heard the Government's recent announcements about church buildings, but please be aware that we will not be opening the premises for the time being, and then probably only for one or two smaller groups and once we are completely satisfied that we can keep everyone safe. We will keep you posted

Volunteering

There is still a need for extra help around the community with two things in particular: telephone befriending for those who are very isolated and lonely, and lifts to and from the doctor's surgery. If you are interested just to find out a bit more, then please talk to Lance

Marriage seminars

Such has been the popularity of the Care for the Family marriage seminars that they have decided to keep the content live until midnight on 31st July, with last registrations on 15th July. Lance and Carol cannot recommend them too highly. Please ask them for more details.

Summer Fun!

You should have had an email about this.
